Support UC San Diego's HIV Programs

As we enter the final month’s of the year it's a great time to give back. There are several ways you can GIVE to UC San Diego HIV Institute.

#GivingTuesday and #WorldAIDSDay both fall on Tuesday, December 1 this year. GivingTuesday is a global generosity movement unleashing the power of people and organizations to transform their communities and the world. World AIDS Day is an opportunity for people worldwide to unite in the fight against HIV.

With your help, we can end the HIV epidemic!

The HIV Institute needs your help to support research that brings fresh perspectives, innovation, and renewed drive to the study of HIV!

Holiday Giving

CELEBRATE WITH THE GIFT OF GIVING
prevention of HIV throughout the world.

Since the 1980s, HIV/AIDS research at UC San Diego has been at the forefront of discoveries that shape care and treatment standards on a global scale. We are internationally recognized as a place that combines the art of healing with the science of medicine and serves not only San Diego, but communities around the world.

For 24 years The HIV Institute has served as an umbrella organization to UC San Diego’s many HIV-related activities. We work within and across departments, in multidisciplinary programs and with many other collaborators to translate new discoveries from our laboratories to patient care.

"To move forward you have to give back."
